

How Long, O God, Shall I Bear Pain

$\text{♩} = 60$ Unison Dm /C

1 How long, O God, shall I bear pain and 2 I weep for those who called me friend now
 3 Do not for - get me! Hear me cry, and 4 Re - veal a - gain your stead - fast care, for

B $\flat$ M7 Asus4 A Dm /C

weep both night and day? My sor - row o - ver - laugh at my dis - tress. They plot to harm and foil what false friends do. Come save me from the all the world to see. With joy I'll sing both

G/B Gm/B $\flat$ A7 Dm

whelms my soul and you seem far a - way.
 ru - in me, to in - jure and op - press.
 sleep of death and bring me close to you.
 night and day your faith - ful love for me.

WORDS: Ruth Duck, Psalm 13 paraphrase, June 2, 2016

MUSIC: Daniel Charles Damon

LEYDEN LANE

C.M.

Words and Music © 2025 Hope Publishing Company, Carol Stream, IL 60188. All rights reserved.

Performance suggestion: Use Native American flute and drum with no keyboard